Mesa News NotesFEDERATED WOMEN'S CLUBS MEETS SOON

The District Federation of Women's Clubs of Central Arizona will meet in session at the Neighborhood House, on the south side of the river near the Bartlett-Heard ranch, on Wednesday, October 27th, at which meeting all members of the Mesa Civic League have been invited to be present.

Mr. Jaxwell, of the valley stage, will provide means of transportation for all who will leave their names at the Crescent Drug store, from which point the stage leaves at 9:00 a. m., Wednesday morning. The roundtrip fare will be one dollar, and the Neighborhood house a lunch will be served costing twenty-five or thirty-five cents.

The convention will present most interesting program, with good speakers, and it is hoped that as many Mesa women as can will attend. The local Civic league has been invited to join the state federation, and this occasion offers a splendid opportunity for its members to meet and know other interesting women concerned in the same line of endeavor as themselves. Telephone the Crescent Drug Store, No. 26, and reserve a place for yourself and friends.

SPECIAL MEETING CIVIC LEAGUE

The secretary of the Mesa Civic league desires to call particular attention to the special meeting to be held in the rooms of the Commercial club this afternoon at 2:30 p. m., as at this meeting matters incident to the reception and entertainment of the president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, who promises an early visit to Mesa, will be taken up and plans perfected. Because of several other meetings today, claiming the attention of a majority of the members of the league, the secretary, Mrs. M. J. Dougherty, announces that the meeting will open promptly at the time stated, 2:30 p. m.

JUDGE STANFORD IN TOWN

Judge Rawleigh C. Stanford passed through town yesterday on his way to Globe to try a case in Judge G. W. Shute's court, the resident jurist being disqualified to act in his usual capacity in this particular case because of some legal technicality. The big judge of the superior court in Phoenix spent the few moments of his stay in conference with Judge R. C. Kingsbury. All that the latter would divulge was that their coming together was productive, in a measure, of the same result. He had been in the immortal meeting of the two governors of the Carolina, only, in this instance, a malted milk was the medium.

NEW RESIDENT

Every year Mesa is acquiring a larger permanent population. The latest addition to the ranks of the solid, productive citizens of this city is A. C. Albrecht, an expert in cement work. Mr. Albrecht has located at the corner of Crismon street and West Newell avenue and will shortly be fully equipped for the production of cement pipe, head-gates, checks, and their allied accessories for irrigation projects large or small. He has a portable, head-gate, which, on account of its light weight and the ease with which it can be inserted in and removed from irrigation ditches, should prove of immense interest to the ranchmen of this vicinity.

RETURN TO THEIR HOMES

It is announced at the South Side Hospital that Mrs. McKay and Mrs. Harry Walker have so far recovered that they will return to their respective homes today.

WORK ON SEWER SYSTEM BEGUN

Three car-loads of sewer pipe were unloaded at the Arizona Eastern freight house yesterday. Doyle Brothers are living up to the reputation they have of being "on the job" all the time, once they take a contract.

RECKLESS DRIVING

Shortly after noon yesterday, two little people—a boy and a girl—whose names could not be ascertained because of their extreme youth and the fact that no one was present at the time who knew them—were knocked down by an automobile, narrowly escaping injury. Recklessness in driving seems to be becoming the rule rather than the exception. That a tragedy was averted was by the merest chance.

AT THE MAJESTIC

Tonight at the Majestic will be presented a Mutual Masterpiece featuring William Morris and Florence LaBadie in "Monsieur Lecoq," a thrilling detective drama descriptive of the underworld of Paris. Mr. Morris plays the part of the great detective in this absorbing drama, while the part of the Duchess, whose innocence is defended by her loyal husband, is given a wonderful portrayal by Miss LaBadie.

JUDGE PRUITT EXPANDING

The volume of Judge Pruitt's business has so enlarged that he has added to his suite the front room of the office where he has been holding forth. The judge can now take that old arm chair out of the postoffice courtyard. He ought to be glad too, for that particular courtyard leads, in suggestive succession, past a doctor's office, a drug store, a lawyer's office, and the justice of the peace

Sunday evening the Gospel meetings closed at the tent. A Sunday school was organized Sunday morning. Wednesday evening there will be prayer meeting, with Mr. Hansen as leader. Sunday school, church and prayer meeting will be held in the Beck building until the church is finished.

GOOD CROWD

Between 25 and 30 couples attended the dance in Monroe Hall Saturday evening. Next Saturday, October 30, at the masquerade, there will be five prizes awarded. One for the best costume from Mesa; one to Gilbert; one to Kyrene; one to Chandler and one grand prize for the best costume of the four. A large crowd is expected. Come and have a good time.

The evening was spent roasting peanuts and playing games, besides peanuts, candy, cake and lemonade was served. All enjoyed a good time and wished Elizabeth many more as happy birthdays.
